Join Team Lizzie Bell Cycling Team and help spread the word to millions, of the desperate need of blood & bone marrow donations for children. Team Lizzie Bell is proud to bring hope, joy and courage to children by funding programs for medically fragile children. When you donate a minimum of $75.00 you will receive a Team Lizzie Bell jersey, plus an invitation to special VIP Team Event at Lizzie's house.

Why ride for KIDS like me?

My name is Lizzie Bell and I have Diamond Blackfan Anemia. This is a very rare disease when my bone marrow produces insufficient red blood cells for my body's needs. As a result, I must have a blood transfusion every couple of weeks. I'm alive because people like you continue to donate blood. But I'm not the only child in need of blood. There are many children who need blood transfusions because of cancer, burns, injuries, surgeries, etc. When you contribute funds, blood or marrow, you help medically fragile kids like me get through another day. Thanks.

The goal of Team Lizzie Bell is to have 100 riders cycling year-round for children coping with cancer or other serious illness. $75 registration fee includes Team jersey, weekly training rides, free traffic skills class, and free bicycle maintenance course.

- I would like to register for Team Lizzie Bell. I understand that to ride for Team Lizzie Bell I agree to donate a minimum $75.00 in contributions to Team Lizzie Bell and to participate in one sanctioned cycling event per year. To get started go to www.FirstGiving.com/TeamLizzieBell to create your fund raising page or send your $75 donation directly to Team Lizzie Bell.
